

Breitensport

You are classified into Breitensport competitions in one discipline if:

- you have no competition license in this discipline or
- you have a D-Class license (or dutch C-Klass Latin license) in this discipline and didn't participate in competitions (both disciplines) within the last 3 years

AND

- you have no competition license in the other discipline or
- you have a D-/C-Class or Konkurransklass license in the other discipline or
- you have a B-Class or Eliteklass license in the other discipline but didn't participate in competitions (both disciplines) within the last 3 years

AND

- you haven't danced 3 finals within the highest Breitensport-Class (Champions) during the last five ETDS.

AND

- you have no formation license

It's allowed to upgrade into CloseD-Class if you want.

If former D-class dancer, dance Breitensport, they have to dance blind date, so they are not allowed to dance with a partner with whom they have or had a competition licence or a member of their university.

CloseD

You are classified into CloseD-Class in one discipline if:

- you have a D-Class license in this discipline and participated within the last 3 years in competitions or
- you have a C-Class or Konkurransklass license in this discipline or
- you have a B-Class or Eliteklass license in this discipline and didn't participate in competitions (both disciplines) within the last 3 years or
- you have a B-Class license in the other discipline and participated within the last 3 years in competitions or
- you have a A-/S-Class or Eliteklass license in the other discipline or
- you have a formation license but no individual competition license
- you have danced 3 finals within the highest Breitensport-Class (Champions) during the last five ETDS.

It's allowed to upgrade into Open-Class if you want.

Blind dating is mandatory for all CloseD dancers.

Open

You are classified into Open-Class in one discipline if:

- you have a B-Class license in this section and participated within the last 3 years in competitions or
- you have a A-/S- or Eliteklass license in this section or
- you have a formation license in the two highest national leagues

Blind dating is mandatory for all Open dancers.